

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF SPORTING CLUB COMMITTEES

Roles and responsibilities of a Sporting Club Committee

What is the role of the Committee?

A Club Committee is the group of people, elected according to the rules or constitution of the Club to run the Club on behalf of the members and to plan strategically and implement measures to ensure the sustainable future of the Club.

Responsibilities of the Committee?

There are many duties to be covered by a sporting Club Committee, some of those include:-

- Comply with all legislation, especially:
 - Association Incorporation legislation
 - Member protection, welfare and safety
 - Fund-raising legislation
 - Food handling legislation
 - Liquor licensing laws
- Ensure the Club is run according to its rules (constitution), purpose, policies and procedures – if you are on the Committee it is really important that you have a copy of the rules, understand them thoroughly and run your Club according to them. In many cases the Club rules will also define additional responsibilities for the Committee and its office holder.
- Oversee the financial affairs of the Club, ensuring the Club stays solvent (which simply means being able to pay your Clubs bills as and when they become due).
- Ensure the sustainability of the Club- most people link Club sustainability simply to financial sustainability, but it also relates to ensuring the Club has a sustainable number of participants and volunteers, access to suitable facilities as and when you need them (both for social activities and sport participation) and often overlooked but vitally important is community support.
- Create and manage a risk management plan that minimises risks associated with Club all Club activities, not just the sporting risks
- Plan, define and deliver the Club's objectives and strategic plan for the future
- Create your Club culture and ensure expectations are met
- Ensuring the sporting, competitive and social needs of members are met
- Recruiting, empowering, recognising, rewarding and maintaining Club volunteers
- Creating and implementing a succession plan for all roles within the Club, ensuring that the next generation of volunteers are being identified, developed and trained
- Regularly communicate with Club members
- Collect, protect, maintain and hand over critical Club information from one year to the next

Sports Club Committees carry not only the hopes, dreams and expectations of the Club members but also a lot of responsibility. If the Committee is also doing most, if not all, the day-to-day work around the Club (as happens in most Clubs) then chances are it does not have time to focus on the Committee's broader responsibilities or delivery of the Club's strategic objectives.

A Committee doing "all the work" is likely to suffer burn-out and rarely is it preparing the next generation of volunteers so make sure one of the key focuses of your Committee is to create a culture of volunteering at your Club.

End of Year Hand Over - Updating key documents

At the end of each year a key activity of the Recruitment Officer will review and revise their position description to ensure it continues to reflect the requirements of the role. The updated Position Description must be provided to the Club Secretary prior to the Annual General Meeting each year.

Induction of the incoming Recruitment Officer

An important responsibility of outgoing Recruitment Officer is to train, mentor and support the incoming Recruitment Officer.

Member Protection Information Officer

Member Protection Information Officers (MPIO) play an important role in community and sporting organisations.

They provide information and guidance on complaints procedures and are the first point of call in the Club for any enquiries, concerns or complaints about harassment, abuse or other inappropriate behaviour. The MPIO provides information about possible ways to resolve the issue and offers moral support to the person who raises the concern or the person who is the subject of the alleged behaviour. The MPIO will treat all information as strictly confidential.

Persons suited to the MPIO position include School and Child Care employees and persons with legal and procedural backgrounds.

To become an MPIO and receive a certificate of recognition, participants must:

- Access the MPIO online course – this course must be completed PRIOR to you attending the Workshop. (click here)
- Complete the free online training course (click here)
- Attend an Interactive Workshop (click here)

Topics covered will include roles and responsibilities, listening and responding effectively, conflict of interest, communication as well as useful resources and contacts.

All courses are run virtually and are free.

Registration

Once qualified the MPIO is to register as a MPIO on the national database

They are to use both their online and workshop certification numbers. Details of this process will be shared upon completion of the Interactive Workshop.

All Member Protection Information Officers will:

- Have a thorough knowledge of the Member Protection Policy and the Complaint Resolution Policy.
- Possess detailed awareness of Safeguarding and the Child Safe Policies.
- Possess a good understanding of all other Club, State and National policies and procedures.
